The polymerization of monomeric conjugated diene compounds, particularly 1,3-butadiene, is well known in the art. For instance, Organometallics, vol. 6, 1638-1643 (1987), discusses the polymerization of 1,3-butadiene using nickel and ruthenium catalysts. In addition to showing the preparation of homopolymers and copolymers of 1,3-butadiene, this reference also teaches that the polymerization of 1,3- f678ea999e
